OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

What are the primary strengths and weaknesses of the teaching assistant?

Comments
Avner's patience and clarity while explaining and even after class and on topics beyond the outlined syllabus.
no weaknesses; very structured and diligent, extremely well-prepared and committed to answer all questions :)
Avner is an extremely dedicated TA. I will never forget how much time and effort he must have put in to answering my very detailed questions over email and even outside office hours. He is also very clear at explaining concepts in review session and office hours.
He was extremely proficient and prepared for the classes.
A perfect TA, knows the subject very well. Very presentable, i'm pretty sure will be a good instructor one day.
clear explanations, quick to answer questions and thinks on his feet greatly Avner was an amazing TA – he is extremely clear in his exposition of the material and answered thoroughly when I had any remaining questions.
Understood the material very well. Very clear. Eddie's mini me
He is super well-organized and explain contents very clearly. He cares about students and was always super helpful when I had questions, even going overtime in OH whenever there was a lingering topic. I learned 90% of the class content with him. My only issue is that he'll not be the TA for the remaining micro classes.
Avner was an excellent TA. I think his TA sessions made the biggest difference in my understanding of the material, and his office hours were also useful.
